

For more than 50 years, Familylinks has been proudly serving individuals and families in western Pennsylvania. Last year alone, we served more than 9,500 people. These individuals range from children to seniors, in a variety of neighborhoods, income groups and beliefs. They all have one thing in common—when they turn to Familylinks in their time of need, we are here for them. To accomplish this level of support, Familylinks continues to offer a variety of family-centered services in the areas of Behavioral Health, Youth & Family Services, Support Coordination and Senior Care.
